

8th Annual L-Dub Film Festival

As part of its decade-long commitment to filmmakers and the Lake Worth community, the Stonzek Theatre of the nonprofit Lake Worth Playhouse announces its 8th Annual L-Dub Film Festival (March 28th – March 31st).

The Stonzek's 60-seat black box theater, with high definition projection and surround sound, shows the best and most provocative selection of independent movies year 'round.

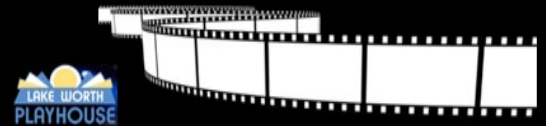

Once a year, the Stonzek opens its movie screen to filmmakers from around the world so they may showcase their work and compete for recognition from our discerning community of filmgoers. In addition, the L-Dub Film Festival offers free to the public technical workshops taught by industry professionals and opportunities for filmmakers to meet with potential investors, distributors and other artists.

We seek 'angels' to sponsor this unique local event. Sponsorship provides exposure to a sophisticated and diverse audience from Palm Beach County and beyond. Through our in-house trailers, printed monthly calendars, newspaper and radio coverage, social media presence and electronic mailing lists, our sponsors reach tens of thousands of filmgoers with one single modest, tax-deductible, socially conscious investment.

To become a friend and supporter of the L-DUB Film Festival, please visit lakeworthplayhouse.org/welcome/2019ldub or stop by our theatre in person, 713 Lake Ave. Lake Worth, FL.

Stonzek Theatre

"The L-Dub Film Festival is billed as an event 'by filmmakers, for filmmakers,' but this collection of nearly 40 short-films, features and documentaries showcases work that is pleasing to all audiences."

– John Thomason, Boca Magazine

"You can thank the curators of the L-Dub Film Festival for their commitment to keeping this non-profit festival open to filmmakers of all levels of experience and financial circumstances... on a quaint street in a small town which now has an internationally known address and an infinitely wide possibility factor."

– WEMERGE Magazine

"Will Lake Worth be the new Sundance?" – Lake Worth Local Resident
