

STAGE DIRECTORS 2025-26 SEASON

Overview:

The Director will be responsible for overseeing all artistic aspects of the production in conjunction with the theater's mission, vision, and production standards. This role involves bringing a creative vision to life while collaborating with cast, crew, and production staff to deliver a high-quality and engaging performance for the community.

Responsibilities:

- Artistic Vision & Direction
 - Develop and communicate a clear artistic vision for the production that aligns with the theater's goals.
 - Lead creative interpretation of the script, including blocking, pacing, and character development.
 - Work closely with the theater's design teams to ensure cohesive set, lighting, costume, and sound elements.
- Casting & Rehearsals
 - Organize and conduct auditions in conjunction with the theater's casting policies.
 - Create and manage a structured rehearsal schedule that works within the theater's calendar.
 - Provide actors with constructive feedback and guidance.
- Collaboration & Team Management
 - Work alongside the producer, stage manager, and theater leadership to ensure efficient production operations.
 - Coordinate with technical and design teams to integrate all production elements smoothly.
 - Foster a positive and inclusive rehearsal environment, upholding the theater's community values.
- Production Logistics & Execution
 - Attend production meetings and maintain regular communication with the theater's staff and volunteers.
 - Supervise technical rehearsals, making final artistic adjustments in collaboration with the theater team.
 - Oversee performances and provide ongoing support to the cast and crew while upholding the theater's production quality standards.

Qualifications:

- Experience in directing theater productions, preferably in a community or educational setting.
- Strong leadership, communication, and problem-solving skills.
- Ability to collaborate effectively with a diverse group of volunteers and artists in alignment with the theater's mission.
- Passion for theater and a commitment to delivering a high-quality production.

Compensation:

- Commensurate with experience

How to Apply:

interested candidates should submit a cover letter and resume along with two references to Artistic Director Daniel Eilola at daniel@lakeworthplayhouse.org.